

Announcing the

MATHEMATICS TEACHER LEADERSHIP PROGRAM

sponsored by the University of Northern Colorado and the University of Wyoming

Program Description

This two year, graduate-level program is designed to develop and support teacher leadership skills and aims to establish professional learning communities that focus on improving the teaching and learning of K-12 mathematics through the development of teacher leaders.

For More Information

Go to www.mathtlc.org for information about program features, program benefits, and applicant qualifications and requirements. Application materials are available on-line.

Inspire change...
Learn to lead.

www.mathtlc.org